1. Introduction

- 1.1 This agreement concerning processing of personal data (the "Data Processing Agreement") regulates the Data Processor's processing of personal data on behalf of the Data Controller and is attached as an appendix to the applicable commercial agreement(s) (the "Main Agreement"), in which the parties have agreed on the terms for the Data Processor's delivery of services to the Data Controller (the "Main Services").
- 1.2 If there are discrepancies between the rights and obligations under the Main Agreement and the Data Processing Agreement, the rights and obligations under the Data Processing Agreement shall prevail.

2. Legislation

- 2.1 The Data Processing Agreement shall ensure that the Data Processor complies with the applicable data protection and privacy legislation (the "Applicable Law"), including in particular Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (General Data Protection Regulation) which entered into force on 24 May 2016 and will apply from 25 May 2018 (the "GDPR") and any applicable national implementation laws.

3. Processing of personal data

- 3.1 In connection with the Data Processor's delivery of the Main Services to the Data Controller, the Data Processor will process certain categories and types of personal data on behalf of the Data Controller.
- 3.2 "Personal data" means "any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person" as defined in article 4(1) of the GDPR that is processed under this Data Processing Agreement (the "Personal Data"). The categories and types of Personal Data, categories of data subjects, the purposes of the processing and the processing activities performed by the Data Processor as well as the processing locations are listed in Sub-Appendix A. The parties shall update Sub-Appendix A whenever changes occur that necessitates an update.
- 3.3 The Data Processor shall have and maintain records of processing activities in accordance with article 30(2) of the GDPR.
- 3.4 The Data Processor possibly processes personal data about the Data Controller's employees in connection with the Data Processor's sale, marketing and product development. Such personal data is not comprised by this Data Processing Agreement, because the Data Processor is data controller for said personal data, and reference is made to the Data Processor's data protection and privacy policy available at the Data Processor's website.

4. Instruction

- 4.1 The Data Processor shall only act and process the Personal Data in accordance with the documented instruction from the Data Controller (the "Instruction") unless the Data Processor is subject to EU law or national Member State law under which the Data Processor is obliged to process the Personal Data differently; in such a case, the Data Processor shall inform the Data Controller of that legal requirement before processing, unless that law prohibits such information on important grounds of public interest. The Instruction at the time of entering into this Data Processing Agreement is that the Data Processor may only process and store the Personal Data with the purpose of, and to the extent it is necessary for, provision and delivery of the Main Services as described in the Main Agreement and within the specifications described in Sub-Appendix A.
- 4.2 The Data Controller shall ensure that the Personal Data made available to the Data Processor is processed in accordance with the Applicable Law, including the legislative requirements of lawfulness of processing and information to be provided to the data subject.
- 4.3 In the event that the Data Processor does not comply with this Data Processing Agreement, the Data Controller may instruct the Data Processor to stop further processing of the Personal Data with immediate effect.
- 4.4 The Data Processor shall immediately give notice to the Data Controller if the Data Processor considers the Instruction to conflict with the Applicable Law.

5. Confidentiality

- 5.1 The Data Processor shall process the Personal Data as strictly confidential information. The Personal Data shall not be copied, transferred or otherwise processed except from the Instruction, unless the Data Controller in writing has agreed hereto.
- 5.2 The Data Processor's employees that process the Personal Data shall be subject to an obligation of confidentiality that ensures that the employees shall treat the Personal Data with strict confidentiality.

6. Security

- 6.1 The Data Processor shall implement the appropriate technical and organisational security measures as set out in the Data Processor Agreement and in the Applicable Law, including in accordance with article 32 of the GDPR.
- 6.2 The Data Processor's security measures are further described in Sub-Appendix B.
- 6.3 The Data Processor shall provide documentation for the Data Processor's security measures if requested by the Data Controller in writing.

7. Data protection impact assessments and prior consultation

- 7.1 If the Data Processor's assistance is necessary and relevant, the Data Processor shall assist the Data Controller in preparing data protection impact assessments in accordance with article 35 of the GDPR along with any prior consultation in accordance with article 36 of the GDPR.

8. Rights of the data subjects

- 8.1 If the Data Controller receives a request for the exercise of a data subject's rights under the Applicable Law and the correct and legitimate reply to such a request necessitates the Data Processor's assistance, the Data Processor shall assist the Data Controller by providing the necessary information and documentation.
- 8.2 If the Data Controller requests the assistance of the Data Processor to respond to a data subject request, the Data Controller shall request so in writing and the Data Processor shall answer such a request with the relevant and necessary information and documentation as soon as possible and no later than 7 calendar days after the receipt of a request.
- 8.3 If the Data Processor receives a request directly from a data subject for the exercise of a data subjects rights under the Applicable Law and such request is related to the Personal Data, the Data Processor shall immediately forward the request to the Data Controller and must refrain from responding to the person directly.
- 8.4 If the Data Processor shall assist the Data Controller in providing a copy of the Personal Data regarding one or more defined data subjects under the GDPR, article 15(3) or article 20(1), the Data Processor shall provide such copies to the Data Controller in the following format(s): CSV, USB-drive or other media or data type that the Data Processor considers appropriate

9. Personal Data Breaches

- 9.1 The Data Processor shall give notice to the Data Controller if a personal data breach occurs, that can lead to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of or access to the Personal Data (a "Personal Data Breach"). The Data Processor shall notify the Data Controller of a Personal Data Breach immediately and no later than 12 hours after being aware of the Personal Data Breach.
- 9.2 The Data Processor shall have and maintain records of all Personal Data Breaches. The records shall at a minimum include the following for each Personal Data Breach:
 - 9.2.1 A description of the nature of the Personal Data Breach, including, if possible, the categories and the approximate number of affected Data Subjects and the categories of affected Personal Data.
 - 9.2.2 A description of the likely as well as actually occurred consequences of the Personal Data Breach.
 - 9.2.3 A description of the measures that the Data Processor has taken or proposes to take to address the Personal Data Breach, including, where appropriate, measures taken to mitigate its adverse effects.
- 9.3 The records of Personal Data Breaches shall be provided to the Data Controller in copy

if so requested in writing by the Data Controller or the supervisory authority.

- 9.4 The Data Processor shall, on request, assist the Data Controller in drafting notification to the supervisory authority and/or the data subjects affected by the Personal Data Breach.

10. Documentation of compliance

- 10.1 The Data Processor shall on the Data Controller's written request hereof provide documentation substantiating the following:

10.1.1 The Data Processor complies with its obligations under this Data Processing Agreement and the Instruction.

10.1.2 The Data Processor complies with the Applicable Law in respect of the processing of the Personal Data.

- 10.2 The Data Processor's documentation in connection with section 10.1 shall be provided within reasonable time after the receipt of the request.

- 10.3 The data processor must, as documentation of ongoing compliance with the Data Processor Agreement, make self-assessment reports available to the Data Controller. These self-assessment reports must as a minimum be prepared once a year and must follow the principles and control objectives as set out in the audit standard ISAE3000 as prepared by the FSR-Danish Auditors and the Danish Data Protection Agency. The self-assessment reports must be signed by the Data Processor's management. The Data Processor is not obligated to initiate and undertake external audits of its compliance with the Data Processing Agreement on its own initiative.

- 10.4 Notwithstanding section 10.3, the Data Processor shall allow for and contribute to audits, inspections, etc. every 12 months, to be conducted by the Data Controller, auditors mandated by the Data controller, or public authorities in Denmark or other competent jurisdictions, insofar such audits, inspections, etc. are necessary to verify the compliance of the Data Processor with this Data Processing Agreement and the Applicable Law. Any auditors performing said audit, inspections, etc. must have undertaken a duty of confidentiality either by written contract or by statutory law. The Data Controller shall notify the Data Processor 14 calendar days before such an audit. If an audit is carried out by a governmental authority directly at the Data Processor's premises and relates to processing activities performed on behalf of the Data Controller, the Data Processor must inform the Data Controller hereof and participate in and facilitate such audits. If the audit is not performed due to actions or omissions by the Data Processors or its Sub-Processors, the Data Processor shall be entitled to invoice the Data Controller for its assistance with such audits.

11. Sub-Processors

- 11.1 The following shall apply for the Data Processor's engagement of third parties to process the Personal Data ("Sub-Processors"): The Data Processor has general authorization to engage Sub-Processors without further written consent from the Data Controller provided that the Data Processor informs the Data Controller in writing of the identity of the potential Sub-Processor (and of any data processor of the Sub-Processor) at least 7 calendar days prior to entering into an agreement with the concerned Sub-Processor, thereby giving the Data Controller the opportunity to object to such changes. Such an objection must be reasonable. If the Data Controller has not objected to the named Sub-Processor within 7 calendar days of the Data Processors notification, the non-objection shall be deemed a tacit consent.

- 11.2 The Data Processor shall conclude a written sub-processor agreement with any Sub-Processor. Such an agreement shall at minimum provide the same data protection and security obligations as the ones applicable to the Data Processor in accordance with this Data Processing Agreement and the Main Agreement. The Data Processor shall on an ongoing basis monitor and control its Sub-Processors' compliance with such data protection obligations, and the documentation hereof shall be provided to the Data Controller if so requested in writing.
- 11.3 The Data Processor is accountable to the Data Controller for any Sub-Processor's processing of the Personal Data in the same way as for its own actions and omissions.
- 11.4 The Data Processor is at the time of entering into this Data Processing Agreement using the Sub-Processors listed in Sub-Appendix C. If the Data Processor initiates sub-processing with a new Sub-Processor, such new Sub-Processor shall be added to the list in Sub-Appendix C under paragraph 2.

12. Location of the Personal Data

- 12.1 The Personal Data shall only be processed by the Data Processor at the locations specified in Sub-Appendix A. In accordance with the Main Agreement, the Data Processor shall transfer Personal Data to the following countries: Faroe Islands, Switzerland. The basis for such a transfer is an adequacy decision by the European Commission, which generally provides for adequate data protection through legislation or through other measures.
- 12.2 If the transfer of the Personal Data to third countries outside the EU/EEA is performed by the Data Processor to (independent) data controllers accepted under this Data Processor Agreement, the Data Controller hereby authorizes the Data Processor to enter into the EU Commission's adopted standard contractual clauses on the Data Controller's behalf with said data controllers. If the Data Controller is itself a data processor for its ultimate contracting parties and the Data Processor therefore is a sub-data processor towards the Data Controller's ultimate contracting parties, the Data Controller shall be responsible for collecting any necessary mandate and authorization to enter into the EU Commission's adopted standard contractual clauses with the Data Processor.
- 12.3 Any transfer of the Personal Data shall only be done in accordance with this Data Processing Agreement, including the Instruction and the Applicable Law.

13. Remuneration and costs

- 13.1 The Data Processor's compliance with this Data Processor Agreement and time and material spent in connection herewith, shall only be separately payable if specified herein. The Parties agree that the Data Processor shall be entitled to invoice the Data Controller for used time and materials for performing works under the following clause(s) in the Data Processing Agreement:
- a) 7 (assistance with the Data Controller's provision of data protection impact assessments)
 - b) 8 (assistance with the Data Controller's compliance with the data subjects' rights)
- 13.2 The Data Processor is entitled to payment for the time and materials necessitated by and used to comply with any changes to the Instruction, when those changes are made by the Data Controller and are not a direct result of changes in Applicable Law. This includes implementation costs and increased costs for delivery of the Main Services.
- 13.3 If there are changes in the Applicable Law, including the interpretations hereof and issued guidelines from the relevant and applicable data protection agencies, any increased costs shall be born by each party respectively.

14. Breach and liability

- 14.1 The Data Processor is not liable for non-delivery or delay of the Main Services in so as its delivery will be in violation of the modified Instruction or delivery in accordance with the modified Instruction is impossible. This may, for example, be the case, (i) where the modifications cannot be technically, practically or legally implemented, or (ii) where the Data Controller explicitly states that the modifications must apply before implementation is possible.
- 14.2 Notwithstanding any conflicting provisions in this Data Processing Agreement, the Main Agreement's clauses on breach and limitation of liability shall apply to this Data Processing Agreement as if this Data Processing was an integral part of the Main Agreement; however, the maximum cumulative liability of a party under this Data Processing Agreement is limited to the total due payments from the Main Services in the 12 months immediately preceding the injurious event. If the Data Processing Agreement has not been in force for 12 months, the amount is calculated proportionally on the basis of the period in which the Data Processing Agreed has been in force. Limitation of liability is not applicable to damages arising from intent, grossly negligent behaviour, or expenses and resources of the other Party's obligations to a supervisory authority.

15. Duration

- 15.1 The Data Processing Agreement shall remain in force for as long time as the Data Processor processes the Personal Data.

16. Termination

- 16.1 This Data Processing Agreement shall remain effective for as long as the Data

Processor processes Personal Data on behalf of the Data Controller.

- 16.2 The Data Processor may continue to process the Personal Data for up to three months after the termination of the Data Processing Agreement to the extent it is necessary and required under the Applicable Law. In the same period, the Data Processor is entitled to include the Personal Data in the Data Processor's backup. The Data Processor's processing of the Data Controller's Personal Data in the three months after the termination of this Data Processing Agreement shall be considered as being in accordance with the Instruction.
- 16.3 At the termination of this Data Processing Agreement, the Data Processor and its Sub-Processors shall, at the Data Controller's choice, return or delete the Personal Data processed under this Data Processing Agreement, provided that the Data Controller is not already in possession of the Personal Data. At the Data Controller's written request, the Data Processor shall delete all the Personal Data, except when EU-Member State legislation or national legislation stipulate otherwise. The Data Processor shall provide documentation for such deletion to the Data Controller upon request.

17. Contact

- 17.1 The contact information for the Data Processor and the Data Controller is provided in the Main Agreement.

18. Accept

- 18.1 Both parties agree and guarantee that this Data Processing Agreement is entered into and accepted by persons that are authorised and have the necessary mandate to do so.

19. Signatures

- 19.1 The Data Processor is bound by the Data Processor Agreement without the Parties' signatures. The Data Processor Agreement is thus concluded without physical / digital signatures, as the Data Processor Agreement is binding in accordance with the requirement of GDPR, article 28(3), first sentence.
